South Koreans Swarm Over 38th

MacArthur Awaits Ultimatum Answer

TOKYO, Monday, Oct. 2 (AP) — South Korean troops plunged north across the 38th parallel in force Sunday on orders of the U. S. Eighth Army commander while General MacArthur awaited response from the North Korean Communist regime to an ultimatum for surrender or "early and total defeat."

The historic crossing was made on the extreme east coast in the vicinity of burning Yangyang at 11:45 a. m. on orders of Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, Eighth Army commander.

Two companies of the South Korean Third division had moved one mile north of the artificial border by mid-afternoon and sent patrols forward seven miles—to within one mile of Yangyang. U. S. air observers saw the advance patrols then draw back slightly, for unknown reasons, since no Red opposition was noted.

South of the parallel, aerial observers spotted seaborne Republican troops and supplies landing at Chumunjin, nine miles south of the 38th parallel, to give added support to the crossing.

Three more South Korean divisions, on the left flank of the Third division, swung northward rapidly toward the 38th parallel. Advance elements of these troops were far ahead of official reports of their movement and probably close to the line on a front stretching midway across Korea's waist.

MAJ. GEN. E. M. ALMOND, Gen. MacArthur's chief of staff and commander of the Tenth corps which liberated Seoul, told a press conference Sunday night he had received unconfirmed air reports that a South Korean unit had penetrated five miles north of the 38th parallel on the east coast.

Almond's troops—the U. S. First Marine division and the U. S. Seventh division—moved closer to the parallel by the hour.

Almond told AP correspondent Tom Lamber, however: "I have no instructions to cross" that line.

As of Sunday night elements of the Fifth Marine regiment were about 15 miles south of the parallel and an equal distance north of Seoul. The Marines met only light opposition.

The North Korean war communiqué, heard in London, did not mention General MacArthur's surrender terms. It told of "fierce battles" in the Seoul area Saturday.

General Almond declared the Communist invasion army in his opinion has been "destroyed." But he cautioned: "What they have north of the 38th parallel I don't know."

The fateful movement into North Korean territory came three months and six days after Korean Red spearheads rolled south across the five-year-old boundary in a surprise invasion of Korean republican territory June 25.

SINCE THE JAPANESE surrender in 1945, the 38th parallel—originally merely the dividing line between American and Russian occupation forces—had separated 22,000,000 Koreans in the south from 10,000,000 of their countrymen in the north.

Both the United Nations-approved Korean republic in the south and the Soviet-sponsored "People's republic" in the north always have claimed sovereignty over the entire country, but until June 25 the parallel existed as a real even though unrecognized frontier.

AP correspondent Hal Boyle with the U. S. Fifth Air Force quoted eyewitnesses as saying the first South Korean troops to cross the border were greeted by cheering throngs who brought (Continued on Page Five)

Young Buck Struck By Car on Route 83

A young deer had to be shot after it was struck by a car on Route 83, between Parkerford and Spring City, at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night.

The deer was hit by a car driven by Harry A. Barthold of Pottstown Landing. It was reported by Ralph L. Shank, district game protector for northern Chester county.

The deer, a buck less than a year old, ran from the south side of the road into the right front section of Barthold's 1947 coupe. Damage to the car was estimated at between $50 and $75.

One hind leg was broken and the 70-pound deer also received internal injuries. The animal was shot and turned over to the River Crest veterinarian, Mont Clare, by Shank.

Phils Win Flag, Top Dodgers On Sisler's Homer

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies won the National League pennant for the first time in 35 years today when they defeated Brooklyn, 4 to 1, in a thrilling final game decided on Dick Sisler's tenth inning homerun into the left field stands at Ebbets Field.

Saved from a possible play-off by Sisler's dramatic "blow," manager Eddie Sawyer's "Whiz Kids" gained the right in the final hour of the race to meet the New York Yankees, kings of the American league, in the World Series opening Wednesday at Philadelphia.

Had Brooklyn won today, the race would have ended in a dead tie and necessitated a three-game play-off for the flag. A capacity crowd of 35,073 jammed the Dodgers home park to witness the tense struggle, and police estimated about 25,000 were turned away at the gates.

United Nations troops yesterday pressed forward over the 38th parallel in their quest of victory over the battered North Korean Communists. But in the path of their gains there were other things to be done—such as tearing down street barricades in the liberated South Korean capital of Seoul, as these civilians (top photo) were doing. And such as marching thousands of captives to prisoner of war stockades, as these Marine MPs (lower photo) were doing.

Senior Girl in High School Here Is Stricken Critically With Polio

Polio has struck down its first Pottstown victim of 1950. Seventeen-year-old Margaret "Peggy" Stanton, of 212 South Franklin street, a senior in Pottstown High school, was in critical condition last night suffering from the disease.

First taken to Memorial hospital late Saturday night, she was transferred yesterday to Montgomery hospital, Norristown, and placed in an iron lung.

Although the tall, popular blond was in school Friday and apparently afflicted with the first symptoms of polio then, the school will not be closed today.

Dr. George A. McCormick, superintendent of schools, said he was keeping the school open on the advice of Dr. Ralph H. Merkel, president of the board of health.

PEGGY, THE oldest of four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Stanton, has bulbar polio, considered the "worst" type of the disease, a Montgomery hospital spokesman said last night.

Her arms, legs, shoulders, chest and throat are paralyzed and somnolent, he said. It was impossible to give exact symptoms, he said, since her condition changes constantly.

She had a slight temperature last night, lower than many patients with bulbar polio. This may or may not be encouraging, the source said. "With bulbar, you just have to keep your fingers crossed," he said.

But she is in no pain, is conscious but cannot talk and can move her head slightly. She responds when doctors make requests to her.

Company A Guard Unit Involved in Regrouping

The 11th Regimental Combat team, of which Pottstown's Company A, of the 11th Infantry, is a component part, has been regrouped under orders of State Adjutant General Frank A. Weber, it was announced yesterday.

Regrouping of the remaining non-divisional units of the Pennsylvania National Guard was necessitated by the induction of the 51st Anti-Aircraft artillery brigade into Federal service.

Under the new set-up, the 11th Regimental Combat team, commanded by Col. Arthur D. Kemp, will include the 11th Infantry regiment, 166th Field Artillery battalion and the 144th Engineer Combat company. Headquarters for all units are in Philadelphia.

1400 Disorderly Reds Nabbed in West Germany

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Oct. 1 (AP)—More than 1400 agitators were arrested today and Communism's newest campaign to shake Western Germany with widespread disorder crumbled against powerful police measures.

The vaunted Communist day of "national resistance" resulted in scattered small fighting and demonstrations in dozens of cities. But 100,000 police marshaled for the emergency nipped the demonstrations in every case before they could cause serious riots. About 30 police were injured.

NATURE LOVERS' MONTH

Glories of October Bid Welcome Again

By HARRY G. TOLAND
(Mercury Staff Writer)

OCTOBER came to Pottstown yesterday as softly as a yodel heard across a mountain valley.

The hazy temperature of 77, the muted, haze-dusted sunshine, the leaves yellowing on the hickories—they all were symptoms of a month that some people love more than any other.

Of course, October is not always 77 degrees. But nature seemed to sense the fond regard so many people have for the month.

The dank chill of the past week was gone as completely as last winter's snow when this month came in.

IT IS NOT FOR nothing that the unknown conclave of jewelers who selected birthstones for the months chose the opal for October.

You turn an opal in the light and it changes color like a sunset. That is October, the month of change and of the brilliant spectrum.

It is the month when most of leaves blush or wither into the incredible variations of red and yellow and brown and also the remaining green.

It is a time when air braces itself. When it feels like there's a lot of oxygen in the atmosphere; when the steel of former days returns to your arches.

OCTOBER bequeaths rare seasonal delights. The cider and apples and Concord grapes that are ripening with blue dustiness on vines now. Also

Marine Adds Child To List of 'Firsts'

S/Sgt. Glenn K. Maxwell, 44 King street, the first member of Pottstown's Marine corps active reserve platoon to be activated, became another first Saturday.

He is the borough's first recalled veteran to father a child on a "re-tired" tour of duty.

Mrs. Maxwell was delivered of a 7 pound 3 ounce girl Saturday in Memorial hospital. Mother and child were in good condition, hospital authorities said.

It is the couple's second child. Their oldest is Glenda, 3.

Maxwell, 26-year-old veteran Marine aerial gunner of the past war and holder of the Distinguished Flying Cross, was activated July 24 before other members of the local unit.

As acting platoon sergeant, he left with the platoon July 31. The red-headed Marine was stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Firm Executive Dies From Heart Attack While Driving Auto

Kenneth Howard, 59, of 22 North Price street, died of a heart attack as he was driving alone on Route 663, at Hickory park, at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night.

Mr. Howard, secretary-treasurer of the Curtiss and Smith Manufacturing corporation, Fourth and Hanover streets, was pronounced dead on the spot by Dr. J. H. Waring, Boyertown physician.

The manufacturing firm executive was driving south on Route 663, about 100 feet from the intersection with Route 73, when he suffered the attack.

His 1949 sedan crossed the highway and stopped in a ditch, but was not damaged, Collegeville police reported.

Only a few moments later, the car was seen by John H. Hoffman, of Spring Mount, who was driving behind Mr. Howard. Hoffman said he saw the car and Mr. Howard sitting in it, and stopped to offer help.

By the time he reached the door of the car, Mr. Howard had slumped in the seat. Hoffman helped him out and laid him on the ground, loosened his necktie and covered him with a blanket.

After Dr. Waring pronounced Mr. Howard dead, State police ordered the body taken to Pottstown hospital. Nathan S. Pegley, Boyertown policeman, drove the Boyertown Community ambulance there, assisted by Howard B. Schanely, Boyertown jeweler.

Montgomery County Coroner W. J. Rushing ordered the body released to a funeral home at 112 North Washington street.

MR. HOWARD was associated with the Curtiss and Smith company, manufacturers of automotive tools, since the company was organized here 15 years ago.

He also had been secretary of the U. S. Axle company plant for several years until 1947, when he began devoting his time solely to the Curtiss and Smith organization.

Mr. Howard was born in St. Paul, Minn., son of William E. Howard and the late Henrietta (James) Howard.

He was graduated from The Hill in 1909 and from Princeton University in 1913. Mr. Howard served as a lieutenant in World War I and came to Pottstown in 1918 to work in the business administration office of The Hill.

IN THE 1920s, Mr. Howard went to Philadelphia to work for a brief time with an architectural firm. He returned to Pottstown to join the U. S. Axle company.

For 20 years, the Howard family lived at 335 Highland road, and had had a summer home, Twin Brook farm, near Sassamansville for the past 10 years.

Only the past week they were moving their possessions from 335 Highland road to their newly-purchased home at 22 North Price street.

FOR THREE YEARS after the war Mr. Howard was the treasurer and chairman of the industrial division of the Pottstown Community Chest.

He still was a member of the board of directors when he died, (Continued on Page Five)

Board to Air Plan On Minimum Heat

Recommendation that borough pass an ordinance compelling owners of apartments and other commercial buildings to maintain a minimum heat in buildings in winter will be discussed at tonight's meeting of the health board.

The measure was introduced before council the past Summer but action has not been furthered, health board members said last night.

A report on progress of the board's request for sewers and water lines for certain blocks of Sheridan and Minter streets will be given at the meeting by J. Alfred Marquet, secretary, it was believed.

At its September meeting, the group urged the borough to consider the laying of facilities for the blocks.

Council's highway-sewer and finance committees, which met Sept. 19, directed borough officials to survey all of Pottstown for sewer and water needs.

THE VETERAN SCHOOL board secretary took up his duties in 1936 following the death of Forrest C. E. Mithouse. He previously had been elected to the first of two six-year terms as a school director in November, 1935.

He was defeated for the school board in 1947, but was re-elected as a non-member secretary by the board members in 1949. The term under which he was serving did not expire until that time.

Holloway was born in Douglassville and lived there until he was 16 years old. He was graduated from the Pottstown Business school in 1907.

Following his graduation, he was employed as a clerk in both the passenger and freight divisions of (Continued on Page Five)

All Philly Is Bedlam At Pennant Victory

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies won their first National league pennant in 35 years today. Then seconds after victory was secured in Brooklyn this city went wild.

It was a circus, New Years Eve and V-J day all wrapped into one. A couple of Philadelphia's famous string bands were on the street within an hour, jingling tunes for crowds of dancers and marchers. Spontaneous celebration broke out from one end of the city to the other.

Steel Firms to Hike Output by 9 Million Tons, Sawyer Says

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Sawyer announced today that the steel industry will boost its producing capacity by 9,400,000 tons a year by the end of 1952 in response to military needs.

The two-year expansion of nearly 10 percent matches in speed the best efforts of World War II. It will bring the country's ingot producing ability to 109,963,000 tons annually, Sawyer said it "well may be" pushed even higher.

Charles Sawyer

From steel industry sources it was learned that virtually all of the expansion will be carried out by 20 companies with no government help.

The figures were reported to Sawyer by the American Iron and Steel Institute. That group canvassed the industry in response to an appeal from the secretary on Sept. 11 for more output.

AT THAT TIME Sawyer told steel company presidents he did not want "suggestions or hopes, but actual commitments for the future." The industry then was able to report plans for a growth of about 5,000,000 tons; the rest has been added in the last three weeks.

In addition, Sawyer announced, the industry will expand blast furnace capacity by 1,734,000 net tons of pig iron to a total of 73,378,000 tons in the same period.

Sawyer's statement called the commitment "a tangible demonstration of the vast productive power of American industry not only now but in the years immediately ahead of us."

Meantime the National Production authority (NPA) prepared to serve its second compulsory order on industry tomorrow — a priority regulation giving the military first call on industrial materials and plant capacity. An inventory control order, to prevent hoarding of materials, was issued two weeks ago.

Aides of NPA Administrator William H. Harrison have disclosed that the pending order will establish a single priority rating, enforceable in any plant under the criminal penalties of the defense production act.

High School Griddier Admits Sex Slaying

DETROIT, Oct. 1 (AP)—A 15-year-old high school football player admitted today the sex slaying of little Joey Housey in suburban St. Clair Shores three weeks ago, State Police Capt. Howard Seller announced.

Captain Seller said Rodney McRae, who fled in a stolen boat from his St. Clair Shores home Saturday, was picked up at 3 a. m. at the home of a relative in Sarnia, Ont. The capture was made by Michigan State police and Ontario Provincial police.

The youth admitted, Captain Seller said, slaying eight-year-old Joey Housey and burying his body in a shallow grave in a wooded area. Seller said young McRae sobbingly blurted out the story but was vague on details.

The body of the Housey boy was found Sept. 30 two weeks after he had disappeared.

'Have I Done . . . So Wrong?'

Emotion-laden story of kidnapping a 3-year-old girl from a Lackawanna, N. Y., orphanage in an effort to repair her own damaged marriage is told by Mrs. Ethel Davis after she had been found with the child in Du Quoin, Ill. Picture with the little girl, Karen Nostro, Mrs. Davis explained, "My husband and I never were able to have children. I thought Karen would, bring us together again."

Former Patient Kills Doctor, Then Himself

JEANNETTE, Oct. 1 (AP)—A 22-year-old youth shot and killed a prominent doctor today and then took his own life while the physician's terrified wife looked on helplessly.

The shooting took place in Dr. Russell Garman's fashionable home in this Southwest Pennsylvania community.

The gunwielder was Gerald Alland, a former patient of the doctor's. Both the Alland and Garman families have been friendly for years. They live within a half block of each other.

Police Lieutenant Louis Hartle said Alland had been treated by Garman and other doctors for what the officer described as a lung ailment. He said the youth was in failing health and was despondent.

Coroner Joseph R. Check said it was a definite case of murder-suicide. Here is the story told to Hartle by Mrs. Mildred Garman:

Alland came to the Garman residence early today. He told Mrs. Garman his father was sick and needed the doctor. Mrs. Garman called her husband, who was still in bed, while Alland waited in the downstairs hallway.

AS HE DOCTOR came downstairs Alland pulled out a .32 calibre revolver and shouted: "Stand where you are."

Mrs. Garman said her husband cried "Oh for heaven's sake" as Alland pumped three bullets into the doctor's heart and head. Then Alland shot himself through the throat.

The 46-year-old doctor had practiced in Jeannette for years and was a former president of his county medical association.

Dark-haired Alland was described by friends of the family as a mild-mannered, studious boy.

He was an honor student in engineering at the University of Pittsburgh. But ill health forced him to drop out three years ago in his junior year.

Since then he has been bedfast most of the time with a lung ailment.

Westinghouse Pact Gives 10-Cent Boost To 50,000 in IUE

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 1 (AP)—Westinghouse Electric corporation and the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers signed a new contract today giving 50,000 workers a ten-cent an hour wage increase.

The contract runs from Oct. 1 to Sept. 30, 1951, with the ten-cent an hour increase retroactive to last Sept. 18.

The agreement climaxes more than four months of negotiations between the company and the union.

Negotiations are continuing with three other unions in Westinghouse. They represent another 50,000 men.

The new agreement covers workers in Westinghouse plants in six states. The pay boost is retroactive to Sept. 18.

Also agreed upon was a non-contributory pension plan and a clause granting wage reopening talks after six months.

The pension plan, with a $100 minimum for workers retiring after 25 years service, is company paid for those earning less than $4800 a year.

The IUE previously rejected a company offer of eight cents an hour.

THE $100 PENSION workers gained includes social security. For employees earning more than $4800 a year, a contributory provision makes it possible for them to obtain additional benefits.

Westinghouse workers previously earned an average of $1.56 an hour.

Under a social insurance program covered by the agreement, employees and the company both will contribute equally to life, sickness and accident insurance and hospital, surgical and maternity benefits.

Westinghouse officials said salaried employees covered by the agreement will get a $17.35 a month increase.

Another provision institutes a fund of one-cent per hour per employee, paid into by the company, which would correct wage inequities among the workers.

Truman Takes It Easy On Chesapeake Cruise

ABOARD YACHT COMMANDER, CHESAPEAKE BAY, Oct. 1 (AP)—Like millions of his fellow citizens, President Truman spent lazy Sabbath reading the Sunday papers today.

Senator Asks No Halt In U. S. Rearming Plans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Victory in Korea must not be permitted to stall American efforts to rearm at home and abroad, Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today.

As a member of the American delegation to the United Nations, Sparkman told reporters on a visit to Washington that he believes the Korean war will produce the first steps toward formation of an international police force.

But until the U.N. is so organized and so equipped that it can stop aggression wherever it may occur, the Alabama senator said the United States must not falter in rearming.

"We have got to continue a strong military preparedness program at home and abroad until we know positively that the United Nations is equipped to halt any new aggression," he said.

The same thought was expressed by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), who contended "the Communists intend to take over the world."

O'MAHONEY SAID the United States must continue to be alert "for other developments in a great many quarters."

O'Mahoney and Senator Bridges (R-NH) also voiced the opinion United Nations forces must go on across the 38th parallel in Korea to prevent another North Korean invasion.

President Truman brought up last week the question of the possible effect of Korean victory on Congress' willingness to continue to vote the funds necessary to build up military strength here and among the anti-Communist countries abroad.

Snake in Grass Ends Bushman's Holiday

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP)—Bushman, Chicago's famous gorilla, escaped from his cage at the Lincoln Park zoo today but keepers prevented him from gaining access to the park grounds.

For more than two hours, the huge, fierce-visaged, 550-pound ape roamed through the big monkey house while keepers sought to coax him back into his cage. They finally succeeded, with the aid of a two-foot garter snake.

A dozen policemen armed with rifles and shotguns stood guard inside and outside the building.

Edgar Robinson, Bushman's keeper, was bitten on the right forearm during attempts to return the ape to confinement.

Austria Pledges Resistance To Threatened Red Strike

VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 1 (AP)—Austrian government officials announced tonight they will use force if necessary to cope with Communist plans for a general strike Wednesday. They charged also that Russia and her satellites are trying to destroy the Austrian state.

The Reds, obviously pushed by the Russians, have served an ultimatum on the coalition government of Rightists and Socialists that a general walkout will be staged if Red demands for higher wages are not granted. Under the Austrian occupation agreement, the Vienna government has authority in all zones, including the Russian, the ultimatum expires at midnight Tuesday.

Ferdinand Graf, state secretary in the interior ministry, said the aim of the threatened general strike is to "upset Austria's economy and thus undermine our sovereignty." He added:

"It is clear that as a result of their catastrophic failure in Korea, communist strategists have given orders to their Austrian hirelings to do everything they can to destroy the peace and inner order of our country."

Graf said he is convinced the Austrian people will resist all Communist attempts to create disorder. Karl Waldebrunner, minister for nationalized industries, bluntly warned the Reds the government will use "forceful arguments" to defend itself.

Second Deadly Snake Killed in Pine Forge

Sixteen-year-old Andrew Sherman, whose mother, Mrs. Estella M. Sherman, Douglassville RD 2, was seriously bitten by a copperhead snake the past June 17, killed another of the comparatively rare snakes Friday in Pine Forge.

Mrs. William Mellinger, Pine Forge, who gave the 16-year-old the sticks he used to kill it, said he had hit it accidentally when riding his motor scooter on Creek road near her house.

He took no chances on its recovering enough to bite someone but went to Mellinger's house, got the sticks, then beat it to death.

Mrs. Mellinger said the snake was about 2 1/2 feet long. Young Sherman put it in a jar for her.

His mother was bitten on the right index finger at her home. The venom caused an infection that sent her to a Philadelphia hospital for specialized treatment.

ing, the spokesman said.

A specialized team of about six physicians, one from Children's hospital, Philadelphia, another from the National Polio Foundation and other specialists have taken over the case. The foundation is handling the case.

Members of Peggy's family were sure that cards sent by friends would cheer her. Her family brought her flowers last night. She could not speak to thank them. But she seemed appreciative, they said.

PEGGY'S CASE began early the past week, it was believed. During the early and middle part of the week she seemed to have a case of grippe which gradually became worse. On Thursday and Friday she visited Dr. Wallace L. Davidson, who treated her at his office.

Friday at school, she spent some of her class time in the health room. She complained of aches and of feeling sick at her stomach. Friends said she looked ashen pale.

When she went home Friday night she told her mother she was "seeing double." When Dr. Davidson saw her that night, he told her mother to call him Saturday and let him know how Peggy felt.

MRS. STANTON, a waitress at the Brookside Country club, did not call until she returned from work Saturday night. By then stiffness was setting into Peggy's shoulders.

NEW ELECTRONIC DISCOVERY FOR DEAF REVEALED

Acoustical Engineer Claims Even Severe Hearing Loss Can Now Be Corrected

CHICAGO, Ill. (Special)—New hope for the 15 million persons in the United States who are hard of hearing was voiced by Sam Posen, noted electronic scientist, and president of the Beltone Hearing Aid Company, in an exclusive interview with the Business Research Associates in Chicago.

He said that "through the miracle of modern electronics it is now possible to recapture hearing, even if the loss is severe, without a button showing in the ear." He demonstrated how the deaf can hear again with a clarity and ease they never dreamed possible.

To acquaint the hard of hearing readers of this paper with Mr. Posen's amazing new electronic invention, full details are described in a fascinating booklet, "New Discoveries to Help the Deaf Hear," which will be sent free in a plain wrapper to anyone who requests it. Address: Mr. Sam Posen, President, 1450 West 19th Street, 883H Beltone Building, Chicago 8, Ill. A penny postcard will do.—Adv.

Issue Still Unsettled In Hoffman Lockout

The lockout of seven employees of the Hoffman Tool and Die company, 236 North Charlotte street, remained stalemated over the weekend, with neither side offering to break the deadlock.

All seven men were sent home at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning after they told their employer, Harry R. Hoffman, 555 King street, they wanted to become union members.

Hoffman had no comment to make on the closing of his plant or the possibility that he might reopen last night.

"I have nothing to say," he remarked tersely.

Leonard A. Keffer, a Doehler-Jarvis steward in Pottstown Local 1056, United Auto Workers (CIO), with whom the men had been dealing in an effort to affiliate with the local, said an international union representative will handle the case.

The representative, Emanuel Mann, of New York City, is expected to arrive in Pottstown to discuss possible union representation with the men.

Politicians Create Shortages

THE SUGAR shortage was caused not by hoarding housewives but by pressure politics, Fortune magazine declared yesterday.
After the Korean war set off a wave of sugar buying, some industrial users (bakers, canners, confectioners, etc.) had to curtail operations.

These users, Fortune said, are "indignant about the government practice of keeping supply short and prices high for the benefit of about 56,000 U. S. sugar farmers and the sugar processing and refining industry.

"In 1934, the sugar farmers' friends in Washington handed them a handsome package combining tariff, subsidy, and a cartel-like quota system for keeping out foreign raw sugar," Fortune continued.

"Through what President Roosevelt called an 'unholy alliance' between sugar farmers and domestic refiners, a quota system was also provided for refined sugar."

The quotas were suspended in 1942, as a result of the U. S. entry into World War II, the tariff was reduced, and for a time just after the war major sugar consumers actually were able to buy freely enough to accumulate some reserves.

"Then in 1948 the sugar lobby went to work and the whole depression-conceived apparatus of 1934 was restored. This time quotas were even extended to sugar refined in Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

"All this despite the fact that the 'self-sufficiency' argument had broken down completely during World War II. For lack of manpower, U. S. beet-sugar production dropped from a high of 1,900,000 tons in 1940-41 to less than one million in 1943-44.

"Under the Sugar Act of 1948 the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to determine each December precisely how much sugar the U. S. will consume in the following year.
He then allows percentages of this amount among U. S. and foreign producers. U. S. growers get about 60 percent of the total.
Almost all of the rest is divided between the Philippines and Cuba.

"Last December, Secretary Brannan set U. S. sugar consumption for 1950 at 7,500,000 tons—148,000 tons less than were actually used in 1949. U. S. consumption was already running about 200,000 tons over last year when the North Korean attack set off a buying wave that swept shelves and warehouses clean and put refinery prices up from $7.85 to $8.25 per hundredweight.

"Mr. Brannan was obliged to raise the national sugar allowance by 350,000 tons, but it was soon clear that even this was not enough. Far from being ready for an emergency, the U. S., through years of persistent under-importation, had been forced to use up most of its reserves of stored sugar.

"Luckily, Cuba had started the year with what looked to be a million-ton surplus. By the time the U. S. Government got around to buying on July 30, there were still 600,000 tons of it left. So, for the moment, the U. S. does own plenty of raw sugar.

"In December, barring a general war,
the Secretary of Agriculture will presumably decree once more that the American people shall have less sugar than they might otherwise consume, and pay more for it than they otherwise would.

"In the years since 1925-29, while sugar prices were increasing by about 100 percent, average annual consumption of sugar by Americans has dropped from 106 to 93 pounds per capita.

"That is the sugar lobby's curious monument."

Potential Fire Hazard

ONE DAY last week The Mercury reported a tragic fire in which an Upper Frederick township family was made homeless. Cause of the fire, firemen indicated, was a defective oil burning space heater.

Oil space heaters, the National Board of Fire Underwriters warns, cause many fires each Fall and Winter. It suggests some simple safety rules:

1. Thoroughly inspect and clean the heater before putting it into operation. Then keep it clean.
2. Keep it away from curtains, tablecloths and other hanging material.
3. Don't operate the heater in a closed room.
4. Don't leave the heater unattended when it is first lighted. Watch the flame and adjust it so it produces no smoke.

2000 Feared Slain By Reds in Mass Murder of Civilians

By O. H. P. KING

SEOUL, Oct. 1 (AP)—Discovery of mass graves today raised fears that the Communists may have murdered as many as 2000 political prisoners in a single district of Seoul just before they retreated.

I saw the bodies of 27 men and women, each with bound hands, in trenches which the South Korean army had dug in the first days of the war but which they had never used. More than 100 other bodies were reported found in the immediate area.

"People here say 2000 residents of this district alone were taken to Red police headquarters," said Mayor Lee Ki Poong. When the fall of Seoul became apparent, these people were removed from jails and none has since been seen alive.

"They have been either killed or taken north."

The mayor said the victims were relatives of persons sought by the Communist police, members of the Korean republic's national police, and youths who had tried to evade Red military conscription.

"Similar atrocities are being reported from other sections of Seoul," the mayor said, but he has not yet had an opportunity to check them personally.

Mourning relatives swarmed to the mass graves, seeking to identify husbands, wives or sons.

ONE MAN SAID he had found the body of his pregnant wife with one breast and one ear hacked off.

This man, a cannery worker, said he had gone into hiding to escape Red conscription and the Communists had arrested his wife, apparently for that reason.

I saw the body of another woman that appeared to have been bayoneted.

In one of the trenches were four dead Communist soldiers. Whether they had been killed by their own comrades or in the Allied recapture of Seoul could not be determined.

Mayor Lee said pro-Reds in Seoul had acted as informers during the occupation.

There are some Communists among our vigilantes who are helping to maintain order now," the mayor conceded, "but we will weed them out in a few days."

Four hundred and fifty South Korean policemen arrived from Pusan during the day. Mayor Lee said 2000 more were expected Monday to take over from the vigilantes and military police.

that he, too, could raise prize chickens. Mrs. Fegley, in the meantime, had thought more than once of throwing out the framed ribbons her husband had brought home.

This past Spring, another Pottstown poultry fancier, Wallace S. Keyser, 6 West Third street, gave Leonard six bantams.

TODAY, HIS flock of Seabrights numbers about 40, which along with other chickens are housed in ten well-kept coops behind the Fegley home.

The young Ninth grader had never before entered a bird in competition and had likewise never sold one. About 50 chickens of that category were on exhibition at the fair. The sale of birds to Acuff was negotiated by Harry Sterling, a fair official.

Mrs. Fegley said last night that Leonard, an only child, does exceptionally well in caring for his birds, but admitted that during the school term both she and her husband now help out with the chores necessary to keep them in prize trim.

With his five blue, four red and one white ribbon safely at home, Leonard now plans to show more of his bantams at Winter exhibitions.

At next year there should be more ribbons to frame along with Dad's, because Leonard is set on seeing his birds in every fair he can possibly get them to.

AUTO ACCIDENTS —

of the accident. The driver of the car could not be learned.

AMELIA SCHLEICHER, 69, of 1639 Main street, Trappe, was still in critical condition in Memorial hospital last night after she and a companion reportedly walked into the side of a moving car near Trappe early Friday night.

Hospital authorities said her condition remained unchanged. She was still in an oxygen tent, suffering from skull fracture and lacerations of the face and head.

Edna Dornheim, 35, German-town, who sustained head injuries, lacerations of the scalp, wrist and right leg and a hip fracture, was slightly improved, a hospital spokesman said.

MEANWHILE, FRED C. DeGraft, 26, of the Merchants hotel, driver of the car involved, remained in Montgomery county prison, Norris-town, in default of $500 bail on a charge of assault by automobile.

The charge was placed by James D. Barber, Upper Providence township police chief, at a hearing before Justice of the Peace T. A. P. Cagle, Mont. Clare.

The youth, a pipeline company worker, will have another hearing when the full extent of the two women's injuries is known, Barber said.

DeGraft, a native of Gardner, N. Y., has been in the area only a few months and could not be released on his own recognizance.

The accident occurred at 6:30 o'clock Friday night as DeGraft was returning to Pottstown from work near Ambler with the Northeastern Construction company.

He was driving his heavy, 1938 four-door sedan west on route 422 a quarter mile west of Trappe when the two women ran into the side of the car, witnesses said.

The two had just alighted from a Pottstown bus and were dashing across the highway to Miss Schleicher's home, Barber said. There were marks on the left front door where they hit the vehicle.

Dr. Ivan W. Hess, Limerick, treated them at the scene and a Trappe Community ambulance took them to the hospital. Barber and State police of the Collegeville sub-station investigated.

CHARLES LEVENGOOD, Pottstown RD 1, escaped injury yesterday afternoon when his car crashed against a bank and bounced into a utility pole on Sanatoga road.

Levengood said he was forced off an S-turn on the road about one-half mile north of Route 422 by a southbound car.

His car plunged off the right side of the road, struck the bank, and then careened across the road again until it hit the pole. The 35-year-old man, who was alone in the car, escaped injury but the entire front of the vehicle was damaged.

State police of the Collegeville sub-station investigated. They reported the accident happened at 4:40 o'clock.

THREE COLLISIONS in Pottstown kept borough police busy yesterday.

At 1:15 a. m. two coupes collided on High street, between Charlotte and Evans streets. The driver of one left without giving his name.

Leonard E. Smith, 1233 Maple street, told police in borough hall that he was driving east on High street when another eastbound car cut in front of him.

A piece of metal from the rear section of the second car was wedged between the bumper and left front fender of Smith's car.

AT 9 O'CLOCK yesterday morning, drivers reported at borough hall, two cars collided at Cherry and Evans streets. The drivers were Nathaniel P. Brunner, 367 Laurel street, and Thomas J. Yednock, 13 East Fifth street.

Brunner was driving north on Evans street and Yednock was coming east on Cherry street, turning left into Evans street, when the two cars met.

Brunner's was the worst damaged, with the left front wheel and fender and left front door scraped and the front wheels knocked out of line.

A MOTORCYCLE and an automobile were damaged in a collision at High and Hanover streets at 1:18 p. m. yesterday.

The motorcycle driver, James O. Mauger, 406 South Keim street, was coming north on Hanover street when Robert Kummerer was driving south. The two collided when Kummerer made a left turn.

The handlebar of the motorcycle was bent and the right rear fender and door of the car were damaged. Police Sgt. Daniel J. Linton investigated.

The Third Division crossed the line approximately 15 minutes before General MacArthur's ultimatum to the North Korean government was broadcast from four powerful Army transmitters in Tokyo and the restored civilian radio at Seoul.

The question whether Korea's unification would come without further bloodshed depended upon Kim Il Sung, North Korean premier and supreme commander, and his field commander, Gen. Choi Yung Kun. The question remained unanswered early Monday.

additional $3000 will be required to finish the exterior.

An effort will be made to have each family in the parish help finance the construction of the convent. A special meeting of the congregation has been called for 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the school hall to discuss a financial campaign.

IN URGING the members of the congregation to support the convent construction, the Rev. Begley declared:

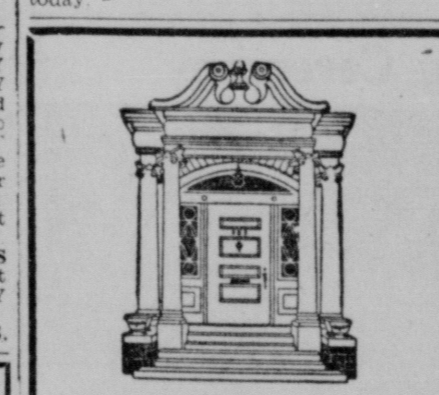

"In every corner of the globe, yes, even in Pottstown, the priests could not accomplish half or one-tenth of what they do were it not for the invaluable assistance of the devoted sisters who are helping to spread our Church upon earth.

"Five times as many women are giving their lives to this work as men, and in many ways, they are accomplishing more. Without them the priests would be cramped and hampered to so great a degree that the work of the Church would be greatly limited."

He explained the growth of St. Aloysius parochial school since its opening in 1912 has necessitated an increase in the number of sisters to teach the grades. At the present time, he continued, nine sisters, one for each of the grades and one housekeeper, are housed in the convent.

The facilities of the convent, however, failed to grow as the number of sisters increased. As a result, they have been forced to double up in their rooms, living in crowded and uncomfortable conditions.

WITH THE permission of the archbishop, Cardinal Dougherty, the church purchased the home adjoining the convent from Anna Lafferty, of Nassau county, Long Island. The transaction was arranged and completed by Douglas V. O'Dell, Pottstown real estate man.

The building has been occupied by John H. Gottshall, who conducts a grocery store on the premises.

The additional property extends the church's holdings to the private alley between Hanover and Penn streets.

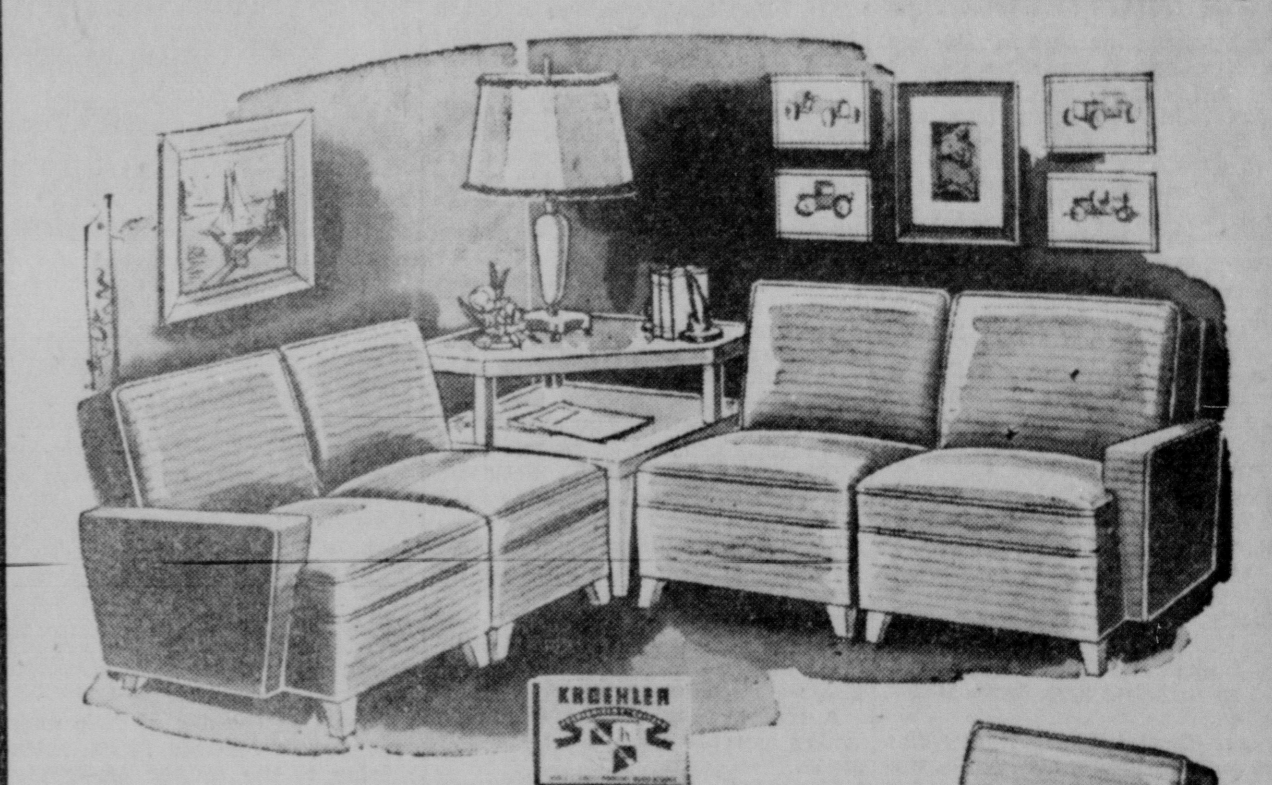

Since the convent will remain close behind the church, it will be accessible to the school and will eliminate traffic hazards the sisters might otherwise encounter.

As an additional means of acquiring the needed funds to build the convent, a large number of men in the church will be asked to serve on a special finance committee. They have been asked to attend the meeting at the school tomorrow night.

Needlework Display Enjoyed by Group In Loomis Residence

A display of the Needlework Guild of America was enjoyed Saturday afternoon by members of West Vincent Housewives league in the home of Mrs. C. Pay Loomis, near Ludwig's Corner.

Speaker for the day was Mrs. James Howse, secretary of the West Vincent branch of the guild. She brought the display and explained that the guild was started in 1883. The first local branch, Whitford, was organized by Mrs. Wilfred Thomas.

The group learned that the guild has nine beneficiaries, including children, the aged and the worthy.

On Oct. 26 at 2:30 o'clock the branch gathering will be held at the home of Mrs. Howse, in Exton. At this time, all articles made or donated will be sent to their destinations.

Mrs. Harold Lumis, president, was in charge of the meeting. In the absence of the chaplain, Mrs. Jacob Scholl, Mrs. Karl Garvine led the devotions.

THE PROGRAM committee chairman, Mrs. D. C. Knauer, reported the calendar for the 1950-51 season, and announced that the 25th anniversary will be observed in 1951.

A survey was taken on the number of members who owned deep freezers and each reported the size of her locker; the foods she placed in it, and the results she got.

A discussion was held on taking the tuberculosis tests, and the group decided to merge with another organization to have the tests made. The date will be announced later.

The following program committee for the Christmas program was appointed:

Mrs. Louise Gay, Mrs. James Strickland, Mrs. Scholl and Mrs. Florence Playhart.

The next meeting will be held in the form of an open house meeting Oct. 24 at 8 o'clock in South Coventry Consolidated school.

Guests were Mrs. J. W. Sandiford and Mrs. M. C. Allen. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the conclusion of the meeting.

Sisler, Roberts Spark Kids' 4-1 Win Over Brooks

BROOKLYN, Oct. 1 (AP)—Dick Sisler, son of a Hall of Fame great clinched the National League pennant for the Philadelphia Whiz Kids today, 4-1 with a 10-inning three-run homer to back up Robin Roberts' superb pitching against the crumpling Brooklyn Dodgers in the last game of the season.

Young Roberts, celebrating his 24th birthday a day late, throttled a bases-loaded Dodger threat in the ninth to become the Phil's first 20-game winner since 1917 in the golden days of Grover Cleveland Alexander.

turned back the Dodgers with five hits in a thrilling contest watched by a turnaway crowd of 35,073.

Pulling the Phils out of a five-game losing tailspin that threatened to cost them their first flag since 1915, Roberts came through in real championship fashion.

Thus the Dodgers, who planned to sell tickets for a post-season tie playoff, ended their dramatic "miracle finish" two games out of first place. They missed their chance for a tie on the wings of Sisler's

13th homer of the year, a curling liner over Cal Abrams' head in the lower left field seats in the 10th.

SISLER, MOVED to the outfield

last Spring when Eddie Waitkus won back his first base job, took the count to one ball and two strikes before he ripped a Don New-comb's next pitch for the homer that meant the World Series highest out for every delirious Phil.

They practically tore Sisler's shirt off his back as he raced to the dugout behind Eddie Waitkus and Richie Ashburn who were on base.

Everybody on the bench was out to greet him, tossing caps in the air and pounding one another's backs. It seems the Phils are in pennants after a 35-year wait.

It was the most dramatic baseball game since Bill Bevens lost his no-hit bid in this same park in the 1947 World Series. This was a tinger down to the final out.

Drama dripped from every pitch by Roberts in the frantic ninth when

Brooklyn almost sent this sizzling race into a play-off.

Twice manager Eddie Sawyer strode from the bench to come to confer with his pitcher and catcher Stan Lopatz following

Brooklyn threats. But he stuck with him all the way in with Jim

Konstanty, baseball's best relief pitcher, straining at the leash in the bullpen.

The strapping Roberts walked Cal

Abrams, his second pass of the game, to open the ninth. Pee Wee

Reese, who doubled in the fourth and hit his 11th homer, bled the right field fence in the sixth, singled to left. One more hit and it seemed the ball game was over.

DUKE SNIDER came through with the hit, a single to center but little Ashburn made a perfect peg to the plate to nail Abrams trying to score all the way from second.

It took a perfect throw to get him.

Ashburn had it.

Still Roberts wasn't out of the woods. Sawyer came out and they decided to walk Jackie Robinson intentionally to load the bases.

Konstanty was throwing hard in the bullpen but Sawyer let Robin pitch to Carl Furillo. It was the right move. He hoisted a foul pop on the first pitch. Then the Dodgers got the flyball that could have scored the winning run, one out earlier. Hodges sent Del Ennis deep near the base of the scoreboard to grab his third out hoist.

Heartened by this turn of events, the Phils dug in to big

Mr. Newcomb, a 220-pound giant, for the ball game. Roberts started things himself with a single to center.

Waitkus dumped a high pop

single to center that fell in front of Snider's late start. Ashburn's bunt forced Roberts at third and the Dodgers were one-third out of the jam.

Then Sisler strode up looking for his fourth straight hit. He had scored the only other Phil run in the sixth when his single was backed up by more of the same from Ennis and Willie Jones.

Sisler pulled his three singles to right field. He didn't pull the homer.

It was a slice, by a left-handed hitter into the left field seats maybe some 350 feet from home.

THUS THE PHILS averted a collapse that would have gone into the record books with the worst in baseball history—with the Pirates of 1921

Garden Stars of NL Champs

The Phillies' all-star outfield staged a great show yesterday as the Phils trimmed Brooklyn, 4-1, sewing up the National League pennant on the season's final day. Big Dick Sisler, left, banged a three-run homer in the tenth inning for his fourth hit in five times and the game-winning blow; Richie Ashburn, center, nipped the Brooks' Cal Abrams with a perfect peg to the plate to preserve a 1-1 deadlock in the ninth inning; and Del Ennis, right, the league's RBI king, smacked two singles in five tries.

Giants Win, Yanks, Tigers Lose

Condensed From AP Wires

While the Phils and Dodgers stole all the thunder on the major league scene yesterday, the rest of the National and American league teams went through the formality of finishing their schedules.

Most of the games found managers filling their lineups with newcomers up from the farms, and some of the farmhands turned in natty performances.

It was rookie right-hander George Spencer who flung a five-hitter to give the New York Giants a 5-1 win over Boston's Braves. He gave up a homer to Sibby Sisti for the only Tribe run, while his mates rapped Warren Spahn for four runs in the first inning.

Ron Northey smacked a pinch single in the 11th inning to give the Chicago Cubs a 3-2 win over St. Louis after Stan Musial had tied up the game with a home run in the eighth. Hank Sauer and Hal Jencoat homered for the Cubs.

Pittsburgh and Cincinnati divided a twinnish, the Reds taking the first, 3-2, and the Bucs coming back.

3-1. Wally Westlake hammered homers 23 and 24.

IN THE AMERICAN, Philadelphia's A's took a 5-3 decision from Washington as rookie pitcher John Kucab gained his first major league victory, despite homers by Sam Mele and Cass Michaels.

The championship New York Yankees bowed to Boston, 7-5, with most of their bench warmers in action. Ted Williams blasted four hits in five tries.

At Chicago, Gus Zernial, White Sox outfielder, slammed four homers in two games as the White Sox and St. Louis Browns split a doubleheader. Chicago won the first game, 4-3, as Zernial connected once, then dropped the nightcap, 10-6, despite three Zernial non-stoppers.

Catcher Ray Murray slammed a bases-loaded triple in the eighth inning to enable the Cleveland Indians to trim runner-up Detroit, 7-5.

Herb Conyers of the Tribe and Tiger Pat Mullip, homered.

"Head First" Win Stirs Bedlam in Phils' Clubhouse

BROOKLYN, Oct. 1 (AP)—"Well, we didn't break in, did we?" Those were the first words Eddie Sawyer said as he led the victorious Phils into the visiting dressing room today following their thrilling 10-inning, 4-1 pennant triumph over Brooklyn.

The place was a bedlam. Old timers couldn't remember a noisier, wilder and more jubilant clubhouse in years. Flashbulbs snapped all over the place, players hugged each other and everybody seemed to be talking at once.

Coaches Benny Bengough and Cy Perkins broke down and cried. Dick Sisler, whose homer with two on in the 10th broke a 1-1 tie, was mobbed by his teammates. Center-fielder Richie Ashburn, whose great throw to the plate to nip Cal Abrams in the ninth, saved the game, kissed Sisler.

Sisler, himself, was happy beyond words.

"That's a dream," he kept saying.

"That's what it is. The pitch I hit for a home run was a high, outside pitch. I was surprised he threw me that because I usually hit that kind of pitch well. Newcomb kept pitching me inside all day."

IT'S THE SECOND home run I've hit off Newcomb this year. Sisler added, "Both came here and both were hit into the left field stands.

"Boy, how I love Ebbets Field. I always could hit in this park."

Asked whether he thought his dad,

the famous George Sisler, now a Dodger scout, would be displeased by his game-winning hit, Dick replied:

"Not dad. He must be proud as a peacock right now. Of course, he probably has mixed emotions, but I'm sure he's tickled as long as it

Hill Bashes Williamson, 49-6

BAKER, SCOTT TALLY TWICE AS BLUE OPENS GRID CARD

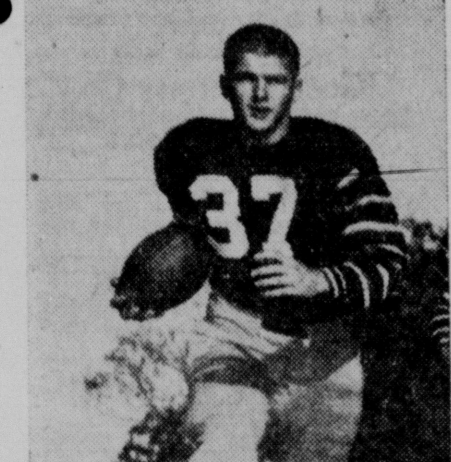

Hill School's deep and devastating football machine was off to another roaring start today after mobbing an outgunned Williamson Trade School team, 49-6, against the backdrop of hundreds of vobule students and alumni here Saturday.

There was never the slightest doubt who would win this one, although it seemed for a time that the rawboned underdog would get away with some sort of moral solace. For a quarter, there was no scoring.

But on the first play of the second quarter, like Hays Baker streaked around end and 18 yards into the Williamson end zone, and the flood gates were yawning.

Before the yellow-clad Billies could blink off at intermission, Hill's men had poured over three more second quarter tallies. They added another pair in the third round, then shoved over a final marker in the fourth quarter with third and fourth stringers in business.

IT WAS WITH somewhat less polish than that displayed by the sizzling unbeaten 1949 Blue-Gray, but with considerably more sheer

LAMAR HUNT
... he generated attack

zest that the Hills stomped to victory Saturday.

When the trodden visitors pulled the surprise of the day by scoring their one TD after an 87-yard kickoff return in the third round, you'd have thought calamity had struck the campus.

Then again, it did represent the end of a tradition. No recent Williamson team ever had managed to trespass the Blue's last bastion.

BAKER PROBABLY was the most lustrous of a bevy of outstanding Hill backs, but picking a hero from the flock would have been a trying task. At any rate, young Hays, son of Bob Baker, PHS athlete of 1919, pranced 108 yards on four carries for a natty 27-yard average per carry.

He punched over two TDs on end sweeps of 18 and 27 yards, and raced 56 paces on one jaunt that ended just a yard short of the promised land.

Oddly, Baker was not in the starting cast. He understudied Jim Fenstermaker at right half after Jim had done some noble running of his own.

Lamar Hunt, the Hill field general, guided his team's attack adroitly, and while four of his tosses were intercepted by the swarming visitors, he connected once on a 58-yard TD play with end Pete Scott.

Scott plucked off another TD in the third heat when he short-circuited a Billie fling and skipped 25 yards to the goal.

And still another end, Pottstown's Dave Blecher, had himself a day. Dave scooped up a blocked punt and ran 19 yards to the second Hill tally, then, two plays later, recovered a fumble that set up the third.

FOR THE WILLIAMSON unit, slight quarterback Bill Frederickson was the workhorse. He absorbed a tremendous beating in effort to launch passes and bang through the Hill line, but he had enough left to set up the only Billie score in the third round.

Frederickson accepted a kickoff at his own ten, streaked for the side tapes then along them for 87 yards to the Hill three where he was nipped from behind. In two socks at the line, Ed Keesey pummeled his way across.

HILL SCORING occurred in this order: 1. On the first play of the second quarter, Baker, who had just entered the debate, circled end and legged 18 yards untouched. The run climaxed a 53-yard drive, given

Forders Rip Norco, 43-6, As Krasley Leads Attack

By GARY TROLLINGER

Royersford High's rollicking Perkiomen gridiron steamroller neatly flattened North Coventry, Saturday, 43-6, before a large gathering at the Eagles' nest.

The win for the Birds, their second in a row in Perk play, was again wrought by a pulverizing ground attack that gouged the Cat line for a net 193 yards. It was the first loss for the swinging Norcos who nipped Collegeville last week, 13-7.

Jack Krasley, brilliant all afternoon as the sparkplug of the 'Ford overland machine, personally stalked the victors to their first score, carrying on six straight plays from the NC 46 over the goal line the first time the Eagles had possession.

His off tackle smash from the one climaxed the drive. The try for point was wide.

After the ensuing kickoff and an exchange of punts, Norco's Fred Kerlin tried to circle his own right end on third down. He was dropped on the Cat 17, and dropped the ball while doing so. Gary Foreman scooped it up in stride and sailed into the end zone, making the score 12-0.

Gene Lincoln kicked off and North Coventry returned the ball to the 20. Wampler picked up three yards to the 32, then dropped back deep to throw a screen pass. But Bill Judge, six-foot four-inch Royersford tackle, intercepted five yards behind the line of scrimmage and trotted 27 yards unmolested into scoring territory. Freddie DePaoli outflanked the Cat line to add the extra point, the only supplementary counter his team tallied all afternoon.

HALF WAY through the second quarter the Royersford reserve eleven marched 35 yards following another interception by Judge with Gary Grater, Armond Cinciripino and Al Fischer taking care of the yard-burning. Grater's off tackle slant from the three finished the drive in the Cat end zone.

Grater scored again, this time late in the third stanza, on the end of a 74-yard Eagle grind, their longest touchdown play of the afternoon. He was the first Owl win after a single loss this year.

Pirates Rout Schwenksville In 39-0 Tiff

Spring City High romped to an easy 39-0 decision over undermanned Schwenksville High Saturday at Schwenksville as Coach Gene Groff cleared his bench in effort to keep the ball game decent.

Scoring in every period but the second, the Pirates seized every opportunity, cashing in on three fumbles and advancing punts for dividends.

Bob Mosteller and Donald Howe with two each, Paul Neborak and Jack Christ tallied the six touchdowns, beginning after Schwenksville fumbled the opening kick-off near the goal and Spring City recovered. Christ bucked center for three yards and a score on the first play and also booted a placement for the extra point.

Mosteller scored in the same stanza after taking a pass and racing 30 yards. Christ added the second extra point by placement, ending the first quarter at 14-0.

Neborak and Howe boosted the total 12 points in the third quarter after sustained drive following Schwenksville punts. Neborak went through from the five and Howe crashed from the three. Neither extra point was good, but the score stood 26-0.

Mosteller scored his second and the longest run of the game in the last chucker by taking a pass tossed by Terry Taschner and racing 40 yards. The Buccaneers tallied their last before quitting time when Howe scored his second six-pointer from the four-yard line after a steady advance. Joe Edwards added the point on a pass from Taschner.

"I GET SO NERVOUS I CAN HARDLY SIT STILL several days before my monthly period..."

"Several days just before my period I usually get so nervous and tense I feel so restless, high-strung I want to cry—due to female functional monthly disturbances. So many of my girl friends troubled this way were getting wonderful relief from this distress by taking Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I decided to try it. And now I'd never be without it. I find that by taking this great medicine throughout the month it helps build up resistance against such pre-period nervous tension as well as against monthly pains of this nature."

"I also have a very dear middle-aged neighbor who finds Lydia Pinkham's Compound a wonderfully effective medicine to relieve hot flashes and nervous irritability—due to functional change of life. 'No wonder it's been called the woman's friend' for almost a century."

P. S. Pinkham's Compound tastes grand in a little water or fruit juice. Or you may prefer Lydia Pinkham's TABLETS with added iron.

Eye-Bank Sight

Six-year-old Janie Arnold is photographed as she attends classes in Washington, D. C., on "borrowed" sight. When Janie was six months old it was confirmed by doctors that the corneas of her eyes were opaque. Last July, a clear cornea was transplanted from the eyebank to her right eye, giving her partial sight. Next year a New York surgeon will operate on her other eye.

Although the accident occurred in Chester county, Kaye was pronounced dead in Pottstown hospital and the Montgomery county coroner was summoned.

The coroner released Kaye's body to a funeral home at 112 North Washington street. The funeral home and North Coventry Police Chief Daniel W. Guldin, were still trying last night to find someone related to Kaye so that funeral arrangements could be made.

Donnon will represent Borough at Convention

Pottstown will be represented at the National Recreation Congress in Cleveland, Ohio, this week by Francis Donnon, borough recreation director.

The Congress, sponsored by the National Recreation association, will be held from Monday through Friday.

Donnon will travel to and from the convention by car with recreation directors from nearby communities.

Funeral services for J. FRANK SCHOTT, husband of the late Emma L. (Schaeffer) Schott, of LINFIELD, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 404 High street with the Rev. Dr. Luther A. Krouse, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran church, officiating. Interment was in Zion's Lutheran cemetery, Spring City.

Bearers were Elmer A. Charles S. and Frederick R. Schott and Joseph Miller, Luther Schott and Norman Schaeffer.

Funeral services for WILLIAM H. YEAGER, who died at his home in ELVERSON RD. 1 on Tuesday, were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from a funeral home in Elverson, with the Rev. John Bickler, pastor of Pine Swamp Evangelical Congregational church, officiating. Services were completed in Reading, where the body was taken for cremation.

Inquest Still Pending In Pedestrian Death; Driver Is Not Held

Elmer Hiestand, 84, of Vincent, Spring City RD, driver of a car that struck and killed 67-year-old John Kaye Thursday morning opposite North Coventry High school, remained free yesterday pending completion of an investigation of the death.

Kaye, a jobless man whose family still had not been located last night, was injured fatally when Hiestand's car came north over the hill. Kaye had started across Route 100 when he was knocked down.

It was announced from the office of Montgomery County Coroner W. J. Rushong that no date for the inquest had been set.

Although the accident occurred in Chester county, Kaye was pronounced dead in Pottstown hospital and the Montgomery county coroner was summoned.

The coroner released Kaye's body to a funeral home at 112 North Washington street. The funeral home and North Coventry Police Chief Daniel W. Guldin, were still trying last night to find someone related to Kaye so that funeral arrangements could be made.

Water Chlorinator Ordered by Borough

Council's water committee ordered a new chlorinator for the borough filter plant at a meeting in borough hall Saturday morning.

Cost of the equipment will be $1034. Immediate delivery is expected.

It will replace a 24-year-old chlorinator now in use at the filter plant. Borough Manager Dow I. Sears explained that the old chlorinator is working, but that repairs have been expensive recently.

The committee also asked Sears to order 100 lengths of six-inch cast iron pipe for new water lines. Delivery of the pipe is not expected until after the beginning of 1951.

William F. Lamb Sr., water committee chairman, was in charge of the meeting. Others present were Councilmen J. Wayne Knause, Elington B. Heck and Gustav H. Schade Jr., and Burgess William A. Griffith.
